

Write True or False in the space provided beside each statement.

	True or False
1. Wood from trees is used for lumber to build homes and furniture.
2. Trees remove carbon dioxide from the air and replace it with oxygen.
3. Evergreens (conifers) never lose their needles.
4. Tree roots are only needed to hold the tree in the ground.
5. Many birds, insects, and small animals make their homes in trees.
6. Tearing off branches or leaves can be harmful to trees.
7. It doesn't matter what type of ground you plant a tree in, it will grow anyway.
8. All trees live to about the same age.	